Extreme Heat Resources

There are several resources available to help our friends living outside cope with the extreme heat we've been experiencing.

BUS Passes: WeGo and MHID have made all day single use bus passes available for nonprofits to pick up at TSA. Please hand out 2 or 3 only at a time so that they are used for extreme heat. Email Jesse.Call@uss.salvationaryarmy.org to arrange for pickup.

The Salvation Army

- Hours & Services: As a pilot project, TSA will open an extreme heat shelter on days the heat index is forecasted to be 100 degrees or higher unless otherwise announced. Hours will be noon to 6PM. Location will vary (either 225 Berry Street or next door at Magness Potter Community Center at 611 Stockell St.). HMIS/CE entry, water, food and games are available. No showers.
  To help with staffing at the TSA shelter, please email Jesse Call.
- Notification: Sent on the MHID texting service the day before opening. Text the word Nashvillewinter to 84483 to receive these texts.
- Getting there: #28 is closest but less frequent, #23 requires a 2-3 block walk
- Pets: Are welcome.
- Other Services: On days when the heat relief station is not open, folks who want to drop by, cool off, and pick up a meal at the main location at 631 Dickerson Pike between 12-5 M-F.
- Outreach Food Services: Daily meal services (including weekends) at Old Tent City on Anthes Drive, around 3:30 weekdays, around 12:30 weekends. Meal services on weekdays at Cement Plant Rd., and the TA/Stadium Inn area at around 12:30.
