Evaluation Comments

Tennessee Equine Hospital PLLC

Strengths

Offer meets standards and demonstrates sufficient understanding of solicitation goals & objectives. Proposal provided all requested evaluation criteria sections as outlined in the solicitation. Qualifications and Technical Experience: demonstrated years of experience, references, veterinary licenses, photos of onsite equine emergency location resources, and memberships of veterinary associations. Capacity and Approach: included brief summary of how services would be provided with facility resources and capabilities of surgery medical record software, on call veterinary, 24/7 availability, and example invoices of equine goods and services.

Weaknesses

Offer correctable weaknesses: references did not include the following: dollar value, dates, in description of projects of similar size and scope. Capacity to perform information could have provided more detailed explanation and organization of submitted documents.
