FINANCE CARING FOR CHILDREN	Caring for Children Case and Financial Records Indexes	CFC case records are located through several databases providing index, as well as other, data. The Kid$Trax database, in MS Access, provides unified case management and funding data from July 1, 2002 to the present. Kid$Trax is owned by the state Community Service Agencies (CSAs) as a result of coordinated development efforts. The CFCDB database, in MS Access, served as CFCs main intake database from December 2000 through June 30, 2005 and maintains demographic data and case management close of business reports. Two MS Access databases—INTAKEALL and CPS—index all non-child protective services cases (in INTAKEALL) and all child protective services cases (in CPS) from July 1998 to December 2000. Data in the INTAKEALL database is child/client specific. Data in the CPS database is family-based. Lotus Notes databases provide case information for the period 1992 through June 1998.	007	557	C	Until database indexes are no longer needed to request and retrieve Caring for Children case and financial records

FINANCE	Community Impact Initiative Records	The CII program addresses issues that place children at risk of contact with Child Protective Services, foster care, and/or juvenile court by providing face-to-face contact with the parent/caretaker and each child in the household. Case management services include home and community based intervention. The program serves families with children from the child's birth through 18 years of age. Referrals to the program are mainly from the school system, but referrals are accepted from other sources as well. The state Department of Children's Services is not involved in these cases and funding is solely from Metro government. Client folders, filed by year of birth of the youngest child/client in the household and mother/guardian's name, document the services provided. Billing and payment folders, filed by fiscal year, document vendor billing and payments to vendors for services rendered. Records may include intake paperwork, referrals forms and logs, flex requests, verifications of need, information releases, agreement-to-participate forms, initial assessment and closing assessment forms, plans of action, school and medical records, psychological information, correspondence, quarterly reports, case notes, closing summaries, check requests, unposted voucher journal reports, monthly reports, service authorizations, and bank statements.	007	558	C	Case Files: through 21st birthday of youngest child in the household Financial Files: 6 years

JUVENILE COURT CLERK

DEPT/DIVISION	TITLE	DESCRIPTION	SCHEDULE #	RDA #	TYPE	DISPOSITION
JUVENILE COURT JUVENILE COURT CLERK	Juvenile Case File	A juvenile case file is initiated when a pleading is filed in Juvenile Court. Over time the file may come to include a variety of petitions such as delinquency, unruly, contempt, child support and parentage, visitation and custody, neglect and dependence, termination of parental rights; a CPIT case (rape of child); drug court child/adult dockets; and reports from social agencies, police, and schools. A juvenile case file will also include the orders and opinions of the judges and magistrates, and the service and processing papers. All documents are itemized and filed together as one juvenile case file by the child's name, birthdate, and a unique juvenile ID number. A child emancipates from Juvenile Court upon turning 18 years old or at the completion of high school if they are 18 years within that school year.		780	C	As a juvenile case file is organized and stored as one cumulative confidential record, and the Juvenile Court is a court of record, the retention shall be permanent in accordance with T.C.A. § 18-1-202(a) and § 37-1-134(b).
JUVENILE COURT JUVENILE COURT CLERK	Minutes and Dockets	This records series documents the court proceedings of the Juvenile Court. It consists of the orders issued by a judge or magistrate in a particular case, and a daily docket showing the names of the parties on record. SHERIFF	POLICY MANUAL	The DCSO creates policies as needed to control or guide agency operations. The policies either address all staff (such as policies concerning attendance, benefits and leave), or a single division (such as policies controlling service of civil process). In addition, the policies often control procedural requirements for the operation of certain areas. Each policy is reviewed at least annually, and some policies are modified more often as required to address issues in new case law or changes in statute. Because the DCSO is an elected office, the policy manual serves as the primary source of authority for the agency's actions. Records include the official policy manual containing original documents signed by the Sheriff.	002	564	C	Permanent
