Project Description	The State & Local Fiscal Recover Funds obligated thus far have been used in 5 main areas: 1) Affordable housing and housing assistance: Metro invested funds to increase the amount the city was already investing in affordable housing and invest in new ways to build new and retain existing affordable units. We invested in rent, mortgage, and utility assistance, and we provided eviction prevention programming. 2) Community safety/public and behavioral health: Metro invested funds to protect the community from the pandemic, improve public safety and public facilities, reduce violence, and address critical behavioral and mental health needs in our community. 3) Assistance and programming for the unhoused: Metro invested in direct services and case management for our unhoused population, as well as low-cost loans for construction of deeply affordable units for those coming out of homelessness. We invested in the operations of permanent supportive housing, landlord vouchers and sheltering when it was needed. 4) Equity-based economic support for the public and small businesses: Metro invested in small businesses that were most impacted by the pandemic. We invested in workforce development and provided funding for education, infrastructure improvements and services to historically underserved populations and neighborhoods. 5) Supplemental operations to existing budget: Metro supplemented the current budget for various enterprise funds impacted by revenue declines and increased operating needs of other departments as a result of the covid pandemic, as well as some administrative expenses related to the management of the ARPA funds. Metro also invested $10 million in Participatory Budgeting with the greatest impact for those areas in the County with the greatest social vulnerability.
